I'VE ATTENDED THESE CONCERTS FOR THE PAST 18 YEARS AND THIS WAS

ONE OF THE BEST

My students were totally engaged and afterwards repeatedly told me how much

THEY ENJOYED THE EXPERIENCE.

I GIVE A LARGE CREDIT TO THE EXCELLENT COMMENTARY. MR. JOHNSON SPOKE IN A WAY THAT STUDENTS COULD RELATE AND BALANCED THE TALK WITH MUSIC WITH JUST THE RIGHT PACE.

My students especially enjoyed hearing each of the instruments and guessing the tune they were playing.

REGISTRATION AND INFORMATION

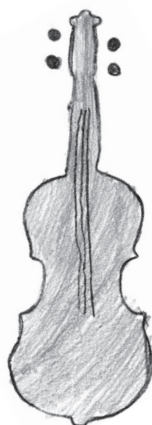

Children's Concerts 2011-2012

Attached is a registration form for PYP's Children's Concerts. These educational concerts allow children in grades 3-8 to experience classical music in a concert hall setting that is less formal than an evening performance. PYP presents four Children's Concerts a year, two by the Philharmonic Orchestra and two by the Conservatory Orchestra. Because PYP musicians are mainly middle school and high school age, your students can easily identify with them and perhaps discover a love of music that will last a lifetime.

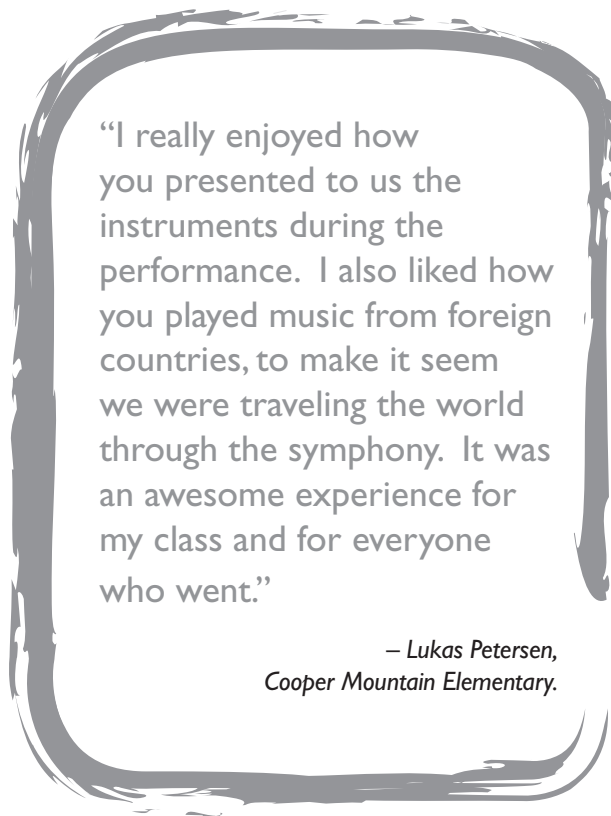

During these one hour performances, students will hear classical music from various composers. The conductor will also explore a musical theme, teach about each instrument family, and may select a special guest to help conduct a piece.

Prior to the performance, you will receive a curriculum packet that includes descriptions of the performance pieces and some post-concert activity suggestions that will help your students get the most out of their experience. You may also request a conductor visit, which consists of a 40 minute workshop that introduces your students to the lessons they will learn at the concert.

“The Beethoven song just made my heart fly like a bird. It was wonderful... P.S. When I get older I want to play the violin.”

— MacKenzie Butte, Creek School

“I really enjoyed how you presented to us the instruments during the performance. I also liked how you played music from foreign countries, to make it seem we were traveling the world through the symphony. It was an awesome experience for my class and for everyone who went.”

— Lukas Petersen,
Cooper Mountain Elementary.

Please note that conductor visits are limited and are scheduled on a first come, first serve basis.

Concert seating is free, but limited. Reserve space for one of this year's performances by filling out the attached reservation form and returning it to the PYP office at 520 SW 6th Ave. Suite 820, Portland, OR 97204, or fax it to 503.223.5003.
